

Privacy Policy

Version 1.0 | Effective: May 2026 | Guardian Compliance Group Limited

1. About This Policy

This Privacy Policy explains how Guardian Compliance Group Limited ("we", "us", "our"), registered in England and Wales under company number 10231796 with registered office at Nationworld House, Noose Lane, Willenhall, WV13 3AP, England, collects, uses, stores, and protects personal data in connection with our compliance portal and services.

We are committed to protecting your privacy in accordance with the UK General Data Protection Regulation (UK GDPR) and the Data Protection Act 2018. Our ICO registration reference is available on request.

2. Data We Collect

We collect and process the following categories of personal data:

- Identity data: full name, job title, and role within your organisation.
- Contact data: email address, telephone number, and work address.
- Account data: username, encrypted password, login timestamps, and session information.
- Compliance data: documents, risk assessments, incident records, training records, and other materials you upload.
- Usage data: pages visited, actions taken, browser type, IP address, and access logs.
- Communication data: support requests and messages sent through the portal.

3. How We Collect Personal Data

- Directly from you or your organisation when setting up an account or submitting data.
- Automatically through your use of the Service (log files, session cookies).
- From your organisation's administrators when they create or manage user accounts.

4. Legal Basis for Processing

- Contract: processing necessary to perform our agreement to provide the Service.
- Legitimate interests: improving and securing the Service, preventing fraud, maintaining audit trails.
- Legal obligation: where processing is required to comply with legal or regulatory obligations.
- Consent: where you have given explicit consent, such as for optional communications.

5. How We Use Personal Data

- Provide, maintain, and improve the compliance portal and associated services.
- Create and manage user accounts and authenticate access.
- Enable document management, approval workflows, and audit trails.
- Send notifications, alerts, and service-related communications.
- Respond to support requests and enquiries.
- Detect, investigate, and prevent security incidents and fraudulent activity.
- Comply with legal and regulatory obligations.
- Generate anonymised analytics to improve our Service.

6. Data Sharing and Disclosure

We do not sell personal data. We may share personal data with:

- Sub-processors: trusted third-party service providers (e.g., cloud infrastructure, email delivery) under appropriate data processing agreements.
- Your organisation: administrators within your organisation may access user data and compliance records.
- Regulatory authorities: where required by law, court order, or regulatory requirement.
- Professional advisers: including legal, audit, and insurance professionals under confidentiality obligations.

A current list of our sub-processors is available on request.

7. International Transfers

Where personal data is transferred outside the UK, we ensure appropriate safeguards are in place in accordance with UK GDPR requirements, such as Standard Contractual Clauses or adequacy decisions.

8. Data Retention

We retain personal data only for as long as necessary:

- Account data is retained for the duration of your subscription and deleted within 12 months of termination.
- Compliance and audit records may be retained for up to 7 years to meet legal and regulatory obligations.
- Access logs and usage data are retained for up to 12 months.
- Backup copies may be retained for up to 90 days following deletion.

9. Security

We implement appropriate technical and organisational measures to protect personal data, including:

- Encryption of data in transit (TLS/HTTPS) and at rest.
- Role-based access controls and least-privilege principles.
- Regular security assessments and vulnerability management.
- Audit logging of all significant data access and changes.
- Incident response procedures and staff awareness training.

10. Your Rights

Under UK GDPR you have the right to:

- Access: request a copy of the personal data we hold about you.
- Rectification: request correction of inaccurate or incomplete data.
- Erasure: request deletion where there is no lawful basis for continued processing.
- Restriction: request that we restrict processing in certain circumstances.
- Data portability: receive your data in a structured, machine-readable format.
- Object: object to processing based on legitimate interests or for direct marketing.
- Withdraw consent: where processing is consent-based, you may withdraw at any time.

To exercise any of these rights, please contact us at info@guardiancompliancegroup.co.uk. We will respond within one calendar month. You also have the right to lodge a complaint with the Information Commissioner's Office (ICO) at www.ico.org.uk.

11. Cookies

The Service uses essential session cookies required for authentication and security. These cookies do not track you across other websites and are removed when you close your browser. We do not use advertising or third-party tracking cookies.

12. Changes to This Policy

We may update this Privacy Policy from time to time. Material changes will be communicated via the Service with an updated effective date. Continued use following notification constitutes acceptance.
